CARSON-NEWMAN EAGLES

9-3, 7-1 SAC
Head Coach: Stephen Lyons
Fifth Season

VS

COKER COBRAS

10-3-1, 5-3 SAC
Head Coach: Michael Antoniewicz
Third Season

Saturday, October 23, 2021 | 2:30 P.M. | McCown Field | Jefferson City, Tenn.

SCOUTING THE OPPONENT

•Coker gets back into conference action after drawing with Shaw on Wednesday, 1-1. Against the league this season, third-year coach Michael Antoniewicz's group is 5-3, winning three of the last five including an upset of then-No. 9 Limestone on October 16, 3-2.

•Road matches have been kind to the Cobras this season, going 6-1 away from Hartsville, S.C. with a 16-10 scoring advantage. Their only loss was a 2-1 result at Catawba on October 2.

•The Cobras lead the SAC with 18.64 shots per game, also good enough for second nationally, 7.93 shots on goal per game and are tied with Limestone for the most total goals scored at 31. They also lead the league when it comes to bookings with 37 yellow cards and four red cards shown, placing them nationally at sixth and second, respectively.

•Coker has attempted double-digit shots in four of its last five outings, being held to just four attempts in the win over Limestone when it was outshot 10-4. In the last five contests, the unit has outshot opponents 93-47.

•Jacques Fokam-Sandeu has been an offensive powerhouse for the Cobras, scoring 26 points on 11 goals and four assists. He has netted a goal in each of the last three matches with a pair of two-goal matches earlier in the season and five goals against SAC opponents. His is third in the conference for both total goals and points, good enough for 12th and 11th in the nation, respectively.

•Jasper Rump has been the keeper of record in all 14 matches for the Cobras this season, playing in a league-high 1277:29 minutes on the year that place him at ninth nationally. His four shutouts are second in the league, two of those coming in SAC contests. He saves at a .719 clip with 18 goals allowed on 46 saves.

•Bastiaan Jager was voted the SAC Defensive Player this past week after anchoring the Cobra defense in back-to-back wins over Wingate and Limestone. He netted the game-winner over the Saints.

•Coker was voted to finish 10th in the league's preseason coaches poll after going 0-5-1 in the abbreviated spring campaign.

INSIDE THE MATCHUP

•Carson-Newman honors seven seniors in the match: Thylan Silva, Greg Evans, Pim Janssens, James Coady, Emmanuel Olaluyi, Gabe Martin and Bram Kaarsgaren. In Stephen Lyons' tenure, C-N has gone 2-1-1 in Senior Day matches, going unbeaten in the last three.

•The Eagles are looking to get their first win inside the friendly confines of McCown Field since Anderson snapped a five-match home winning streak on October 9. Since then, they have won back-to-back road matches by a 7-1 margin. This season, the group is 5-2 on the home pitch, 3-1 against fellow South Atlantic Conference teams, outscoring opponents 16-9.

•In league matchups, the Eagles have gone 151-90-23 overall with a 72-40-14 record in regular season road matches since 1990. They currently sit tied with Limestone atop the league table with 21 points.

•C-N trails the overall series 4-5 that started in 1990 but was not picked back up again until 2013, winning two of the last five meetings.

•The Eagles are 1-3 when hosting the Cobras. The lone win came on Sept. 22, 2018 with Tobias Solem Karlsen netting a hat trick in the 4-1 win. That victory marks the only one for the Eagles that hasn't come in shutout fashion.

•The last time these two sides went to battle was in the 2019 SAC Quarterfinals when top-seeded C-N fell to eighth-seeded Coker 5-1 at McCown Field. No team has scored more goals on the Eagles since that day. Coker held a 1-0 lead at the halftime break thanks to a look from Christian Provenzano. The Cobras added on two more goals before C-N made its way on the board with a goal from Tobias Solem Karlsen in the 64th minute, cutting the deficit to 3-1. Coker scored twice in the final 10 minutes to put the match away including a dagger from Adam Kennedy as time expired.

NEWMAN NOTES

Defending the Home Pitch: C-N is set to host nine matches inside the friendly confines of McCown Field this season. Since 1990, Carson-Newman has compiled a 175-81-19 record in matches played on the banks of Mossy Creek. In coach Stephen Lyons' tenure, C-N has gone 22-10-3 when playing at home.

Open the Gates: Since 1990, the Eagles have gone 18-11-2 in home-opening games. They have won five of their last seven such games by a 17-8 scoring margin.

Hitting the Road: The Eagles take flight for six matches this season. They are 143-109-24 in road contests, dating back to 1990.

Against the League: In South Atlantic Conference match-ups, the Eagles have gone 151-90-23 with a 17-14-2 standing in league lidlifters. Since 1990, the Eagles have gone 79-42-9 at home in regular season conference matches, 72-40-14 on the road and 0-1-0 on a neutral site. They are 93-54-10 overall against SAC teams at home, whether in postseason or non-conference schedule matches, while going 75-45-16 in conference road trips.

Hanging Tough: Spanning back to a 2-0 loss at Wingate on Oct. 20, 2018, C-N holds an unbeaten streak in conference road games that sits at 13 matches with a 10-0-3 record over the last three years and three days or 1,099 days. The longest unbeaten streak in league road tilts lasted 26 matches from Oct. 15, 2003 to Oct. 2, 2010 with the Eagles going 23-0-3 in that stretch.

Feed the Birds: With three assists on his ledger this season, Thaylan Silva sits at fifth-most career assists in program history with 18 since 2017.

Holding Down the Net: Bram Kaarsgaren is third on the program's list for career wins with 24. He is up to 14.1 shutouts in his career, giving him the stand-alone spot at fourth on the list. He comes off of a spring campaign where his seven clean sheets moved him to seventh for shutouts in a single season. His 37 career starts in net are fifth-most for keepers in program history.

Mr. Dependable: Entering year six with the Eagles, including a freshman season that was cut short due to injury, redshirt-senior Greg Evans has been on the pitch for 5,924 minutes of action, second-most in program history. He sits 82 minutes shy of Sindre Welo's program record of 6,006. Between a visit to Limestone on Feb. 19, 2021 and a road win at Lincoln Memorial on Oct. 13, 2021, he played full-time in 19 consecutive matches. Before the trip to Harrogate, the last match he subbed off in was at Belmont Abbey on Feb. 13, 2021, playing 80 minutes that day.

Scoring Streak: Three Eagles have netted goals in back-to-back matches this season, but Harry Whitehead holds the longest streak at three straight. The last Eagle to score in as many sequential matches was Thaylan Silva toward the end of the 2020-21 season. The other two Eagles to do so this season are Nic Carsh and Silva, both scoring in two straight matches with Silva doing so twice this year.

Multiple Goal Outings: Thaylan Silva is the only Eagle to have more than one multi-goal performances this year, currently with three. He netted a pair of goals in both the 4-0 win over Lincoln Memorial on October 13 and the 3-1 win at Newberry on October 16 after scoring a hat trick in the 6-2 win over Erskine on September 8.

Player of the Week Double Dip: After a four-goal, eight-point week, Thaylan Silva earned SAC Player of the Week and United Soccer Coaches Division II National Player of the Week honors on October 19 and 20, respectively. Both laurels were a career-first for Silva, becoming the program's first-ever national selection.

Goalkeeper Assist: Bram Kaarsgaren picked up an assist in the win at Newberry on October 16 after making a long pass down field for Thaylan Silva's opening goal. He is the first C-N keeper to log an assist since Joe Boyd made a long clearance for Ashley Kelynack at Clayton State on Sept. 9, 2017.

Shutout Streak Snapped: Carson-Newman saw its three-match, 349:57 streak of holding opponents without a goal come to an end in the 2-1 loss to Anderson on Oct. 9 when Alexandre Cox-Ashwood netted an equalizer in the 71st minute. It was the longest streak of shutouts for the team since recording six in a row during the 2020-21 spring season. The longest string in program history was eight during the 2017 campaign when the team draw a scoreless tie before rattling off seven winning shutouts.

Defensive Player of the Week: On October 5, Bram Kaarsgaren became the first Eagle to earn SAC Player of the Week laurels this season after recording a pair of shutouts in league action. He anchored a C-N defensive unit that allowed 16 shots and six on goal in wins over Tusculum and Queens. He leads the program with six weekly honors from the league.

Golden Opportunity: With a 96th minute goal in the win over Queens on October 2, Marius Opdahl became the first Eagle to net a golden goal in the first overtime period since Matheus Bachi at Anderson on Nov. 14, 2013, the same season the Eagles played in the National Championship. The extra-time victory marked the first overtime match for C-N since a double-overtime affair at Tusculum on Nov. 6, 2019.

Off the Bench: Of the team's 26 goals this season, six of them have come off the bench. Marius Opdahl has accounted for three such goals, those coming in wins over Erskine, Queens and Shaw with the last two being game-winners.

NEWMAN NOTES

Clean Sheet: The first clean sheet for the Eagles in the 2021 campaign came with a 1-0 result in the derby with Tusculum on September 29. It ended a 177 day span without a shutout victory for the Eagles since a 4-0 win over Lincoln Memorial in the SAC Tournament quarterfinals on April 5, 2021. The seven-match wait was the furthest into a single season that C-N notched a clean sheet since 2013 when the first of the year came eight matches in.

It Takes Two: C-N strung together four consecutive matches with at least two Eagles scoring in each match, starting with a 6-2 win over Erskine on September 8 that saw four Eagles account for goals. The streak ended with the 1-0 win over Tusculum on September 29.

Owning Up: The 3-1 win at Wingate on Sept. 18 was capped by the Bulldogs scoring an own goal to help the Eagles. It was the second time in the Stephen Lyons era that an opposing team netted an own goal, the last coming at Alabama Huntsville on Sept. 26, 2017.

Trusty Thaylan: With a successful penalty kick against Mars Hill, Thaylan Silva moved into a tie for first on the program's career PKs made and attempted lists. He has gone a perfect 5-for-5, notching two successful attempts this season in wins over Erskine and Mars Hill to match his 2019 output. Both are tied for the seventh-most makes in a single season in team history.

Man Down: C-N was forced to play a man down with over a minute left in the Sept. 15 contest with Mars Hill after a red card was shown to Nic Carsh. The Eagles kept the Lions at bay, winning their first match with 10 men on the pitch since Sept. 21, 2019 when they defeated Newberry, 3-1.

Moving the Net: With a 6-2 win over Erskine on Sept. 8, the Eagles netted their most goals in a match since a 7-0 victory over North Greenville on Sept. 6, 2019. Their four-goal advantage in the win over the Flying Fleet marked the seventh victory of four or more goals since Lyons' tenure began in 2017.

Tip of the Cap: Scoring a hat trick in the first multi-goal match of his career in the win over Erskine, Thaylan Silva had the 20th 3+ goal performance in program history, becoming one of 12 players to do so. The last Eagle to score at least three times in a match was Tobias Solem Karlsen in a 7-0 win at North Greenville on Sept. 6, 2019. Silva is now in a group of 12 Eagles to net a true hat trick with 16 being scored overall. Dario Carrasco and Karlsen have the second-most goals in a match with four while Alex de Oliveira holds the single-match record at five.

Helping Hands: Four Eagles combined for five assists in the 6-2 win over Erskine, tying for the sixth-most in a single match in program history. It was the most for the program since tallying six at North Greenville on Sept. 6, 2019.

End of a Streak: The season-opening loss to Lee saw C-N's 13-match streak of outshooting opponents come to an end as it was outshot 14-10. That string spanned the 2020-21 and 2019 campaigns with a 222-105 margin since Oct. 26, 2019 against Catawba when it trailed in attempts, 25-24.

Lighting the Candle: Since 1989, Carson-Newman has gone 16-16-1 in season-opening matches. This year's home loss to Lee snapped a six-match winning streak in such matches. In that span, however, it had won the four before that all on the road. As for home lidlifters, the Eagles have won two of their last three, the victories coming in 2016 against Lees-McRae, 2-1, and 2015 against No. 21 Alabama Huntsville, 3-1.

A Returning Force: C-N lost just six players from last year's group, bringing back 18 players, 11 of those being starters throughout the season. Of the 21 goals scored in the 2020-21 campaign, 20 return to the Orange and Blue this year, scored by seven different Eagles.

New Kids on the Block: Lyons and his crew welcome 15 players to the team this season. Those Eagles hail from nine different countries including the Netherlands, Austria, Germany, Norway, Sweden, Northern Ireland, Belgium and the United States.

Spanning the Globe: Eleven countries are represented on this year's squad, including Austria (3), Belgium (1), Brazil (2), England (3), Germany (4), the Netherlands (3), Northern Ireland (1), Norway (2), Sweden (1), the United States (12) and Wales (3).

Preseason SAC honors: The Eagles return six of their seven All-SAC picks from the spring. The reigning SAC Freshman of the Year Theo Hardenby Öhrwall joins Thaylan Silva and Bram Kaarsgaren on the first team. Harry Whitehead, Nic Carsh and Greg Evans all landed on the second team.

League Leaders: Carson-Newman closed the regular season with 15 points on the league table, giving it the No. 1 overall seed in the SAC Tournament for a second straight season. It led the SAC in nearly every team statistic, including goals (21), assists (22), shots (168), goals against (4), corners (76) and shutouts (7).

Academic All-American: Thaylan Silva became the team's third Academic All-American with a second-team honor from the College Sports Information Directors of America after the 2020-21 campaign. He is the first for the program since 2015 and has three academic honors to his name.

NEWMAN NOTES

LAST TIME OUT

Carson-Newman 3, Newberry 1

Newberry, S.C. - Smith Road Complex - October 16, 2021

Thaylan Silva's brace highlighted C-N's 26th overall victory over Newberry, capping the scoring with a penalty kick that took over the program's career PKs attempted and made lists. The Eagles got on the board in the 32nd minute to open the scoring thanks to a low right goal from Silva with an assist from netminder Bram Kaarsgaren. Five minutes later, a corner kick to give C-N possession provided Eric Schmutzer the chance to push the lead to 2-0 with a hand from Yannick Kranz for his first career goal. Newberry got within one in the 48th minute after a look from Moses Bakabulindi connected, cutting the Eagle lead in half, 2-1. A foul on Newberry's Harry McDonnell in the 18-yard box in the 52nd minute awarded C-N a penalty kick, giving it to trusty Silva. He sent his look to the bottom right corner, just evading the hands of Newberry keeper Lockie Maher. All-told, C-N outshot Newberry 23-7, 9-5 in looks on goal with Harry Whitehead leading the club at eight shots. Kaarsgaren grabbed four saves in the win.

STEPHEN LYONS - HEAD COACH

FIFTH SEASON MIDDLESBOROUGH, ENGLAND TENNESSEE WESLEYAN, '02

Stephen Lyons was tabbed to be the fifth head coach of the Carson-Newman men's soccer program on Dec. 21, 2016. He is in his fifth year as head coach of the Eagles.

In his inaugural season at the helm of the Carson-Newman men's soccer program, the Eagles garnered a 9-7-2 overall record, 6-2-2 in the conference, with a trip to the South Atlantic Conference tournament. The 2017 season marked the most successful of any first year coach in program history. The Eagles amassed a streak of eight consecutive clean sheets through the season, including a 1-0 shutout victory over No. 5 Lenoir-Rhyne.

His second year at Carson-Newman saw the Eagles make the South Atlantic Conference semifinals for the first time since 2015 after taking down a second-seeded Queens squad in the quarterfinals. C-N had three All-SAC selections that season before Tobias Solem Karlsen and Twan Verweij received All-Southeast Region and CoSIDA Academic All-District First Team honors, respectively.

Lyons led the Eagles to their 10th SAC regular season title during the 2019 season after being projected to finish at seventh in the league's preseason poll. His third campaign with the Eagles culminated in nine SAC postseason accolades for the Orange and Blue, including Defensive Player of the Year for Kensho Yoshikoshi and Coach of the Year, marking the fourth time in program history a coach received the honor. His squad amassed a 10-4-3 record, the first double-digit wins season since 2015. C-N went 6-1-3 in conference action with a .750 winning percentage, its best since 2015 when it tallied a .818 clip. The team attained its highest national ranking in four years sitting at No. 13 near the end of October.

The 2019 postseason came with a flourish of 16 total awards for the Eagles, including seven All-SAC selections, the SAC Defensive Player of the Year and Men's Soccer Scholar-Athlete of the Year in Kensho Yoshikoshi, two All-Region players, two United Soccer Coaches Scholar All-Region selections and a CoSIDA Academic All-District pick.

His fourth season at the helm came in the form of an abbreviated spring season due to the COVID-19 global pandemic. His group went into the SAC Tournament as the No. 1 seed for a second straight season after finishing at the top of the league table and was ranked as high as No. 14 in the nation. The Eagles closed the season at No. 22 in the United Soccer Coaches national ranking, marking the first time since 2013 that a C-N unit was in the final poll. They went 7-2-1 in the spring with a 5-1 result in SAC play. Seven Eagles landed All-SAC honors for a second-straight season and one player was among the league's top honors as Theo Hardenby Ohrwall was tabbed Freshman of the Year. C-N led the conference in nearly every statistical category on the year. C-N had the nation's eighth-most shots on goal with 59, fourth-best goals against average at 0.40 and the second-most clean sheets with seven.

Lyons arrived in Jefferson City from Tennessee Wesleyan University, where he spent nine seasons guiding the men's program.

As coach of the Bulldogs, Lyons amassed a record of 74-59-15, including a mark of 58-28-9 over the last five campaigns. During that same time, he compiled a ledger of 35-9-5 in the Appalachian Athletic Conference. Lyons twice led the squad to the regular season title in the AAC and they also captured the conference tournament championship in 2012, which earned them a trip to the NAIA National Tournament. In 2016, Tennessee Wesleyan posted an 11-4-4 mark with a 6-2-1 conference record. Their season included a 2-1 home victory over Carson-Newman on Sept. 5th. The program reached its highest spot in the national rankings in October 2016, when they rose to 22nd in the NAIA coaches poll.

Over the course of nine years in Athens, the native of Middlesbrough, England coached 18 players who were selected as first-team all-conference, as well as two student-athletes who earned AAC Freshman of the Year honors.

Lyons' first coaching experience came in 2005 when he joined the staff at Middlesbrough F.C.'s Youth Academy. From there, he moved on to the University of Saint Mary in Kansas, spending two years as a graduate assistant while he earned his MBA.

The newest member of the Carson-Newman family is also a former student-athlete, as he spent four years on the soccer team at Tennessee Wesleyan and captained the 2001 edition of the squad to the national tournament. Lyons earned all-conference, all-region and All-American recognition during his time playing for the Bulldogs. His playing and coaching experience at TWU helped him become an inductee to the school's Athletics Hall of Fame in 2019.

Following his time on the pitch for the Bulldogs, he then played professionally for two seasons in the New Zealand National League.

Stephen is married to Kristen Lyons.
